DEPUTY CLERK

Motion For Dismissal on Grounds
Of Inadequate Access to the Courts

The Defendant, having been advised of his legal rights under the law, has determined a need to file the following:

(1) Motion For Dismissal on Grounds

of Inadequate Access to the Courts -

In that Defendant has repeatedly informed this court of Lackawanna Prisons library issues of not granting proper access to law library, along with inadequate books, it is therefore impossible to render a fair defense on our matter in this court. A Dismissal with Prejudice is mandated.

This motion is GRANTED on this ____ day of the month of _____, _____.

Representative of the Court

Date

Your Honor,

I am awaiting this weeks hearings on the three motions now before this court. As no debate of any length should be required for Speedy Trial or Law Library Dismissal with Prejudice as matters of fact or law, this Dismissal, required by law, will not tax this courts scheduling. Please forward which day this week these will be held. Philadelphia appeals court wants updates monthly on this and issues before Williamsport on Habeas motions that your court ignored. A rapid scheduling, followed by an even quicker Dismissal with Prejudice would be appreciated by them, as well as the Defendant.

Sincerely,

Michael C Reynolds
